

PRESS RELEASE

Milan 12 April 2014 – In response to the news published today in the press, the Company announces that after the approval of the 2013 draft financial statement and the presentation of the results and the business plan 2014-2018 to the financial community at a meeting held in London at the beginning of April, the Company has received numerous expressions of interest with respect to which the Company will keep the market informed.

While SeatPG's Board of Directors is pleased and satisfied with the renewed and growing attention focused on the Company, it wishes to stress that all of the proposals submitted to the Company will be analyzed and assessed very carefully, while, however, the Company's primary objective will continue to be the conclusion of the composition procedure by the envisaged deadline that has already been announced to the market.
